Dear Parents/Guardians,

The UNT College of Music and the Greater Denton Arts Council are hosting a special event we call an "Instrument Petting Zoo." Instead of petting animals, your children will get the chance to play the instruments of the orchestra. UNT music students will demonstrate the instruments and provide basic instruction as your children explore their musical talents.

This event is free, but you must register to attend, and all children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Registration is easy! Just call 940-382-2787.
